

Ecole Bilingue de la Nouvelle-Orléans is proud to offer the highest quality French-immersion program in New Orleans. We are delighted for you to explore the exciting opportunity our school offers for your child's education.

The application process for admission to Ecole Bilingue:

- ✓ Complete the Inquiry form in the Veracross System
<https://portals.veracross.com/ebnola/form/inquiry-form/inquiry-form-no-account>
- ✓ Schedule a campus tour with the Admissions Office and/or attend the Open House in November.
- ✓ If you wish to proceed with the admission process, you can access the application in Veracross. There will also be a link to the application in your response email once you have submitted an Inquiry (a $50 application fee is due upon submission)
- ✓ Complete the checklist items found in the application form in the admissions portal.
You will receive step by step instructions in the application form found in your Veracross account.
- ✓ For Crèche (18 mos. old) – Petite Section (Pre-K 3), Admission Office personnel will contact you to schedule a parent interview.
- ✓ For Moyenne Section (Pre-K 4) – Grande Section (Kindergarten), you will receive information regarding a Saturday morning classroom visit on campus that will be scheduled in January.
- ✓ For Grades CP (Grade 1) - 4ème (Grade 8), you will be contacted to schedule a morning for your child to visit in a classroom and participate in an assessment for French proficiency. (application checklist items will include the process to request your child's records from their current school along with the Confidential Teacher Recommendation Form).

Note:

Submitting applications before January 25 will provide enough time to complete the admission process in a timely manner before admission decisions are made. Applications received after January, will be processed for classes that still have space availability.
